Music groups offer variety in program at convo Thursday

A musical convocation designed to please a wide variety of tastes is on tap for Thursday. Twelve varied numbers will be given by members of Kappa Mu Lambda and Kappa Lambda Mu, honorary music fraternity, at 9:30 a.m.

Classes will be shortened to follow this schedule: 8:00-8:40; 8:45-9:25; music convocation; 10:30-11:10; 11:15-12:00.

Dick Carlson is in charge of the program for Kappa Mu Lambda and Barbara Comstock is handling the assembly for Kappa Lambda Mu.

First on the program will be "An American in Paris" by Gershwin performed on duo pianos by Dorothy Hayes and Nancy Hileman. Duett from Paganini's "Madame Butterfly" sung by Barbara Comstock and Arlene Madsen, with Nancy Lindborg accompanying, will follow.

Violin solo

Darlene Kanner will give a violin solo, Handel's Sonata in F.

Fourth on the program will be a brass sextette of Rolly Klopfleisch, Jack Bourdass, Paul Thompson, Bill Miller, Cecil Adkins and Dick Carlson. Nancy Lindborg will play a piano solo, a Schuman etude.

Folk ballads

Jack Bourdass will sing a selection of folk ballads, providing his own accompaniment on the zither.

He will be followed by a woodwind quartet number by Sibelius with Bruce Roberts, Todd Rositer, Dick Jenkins and Don Chase.

The Madrigal singers will render three Brahms waltzes from the "Leibesteider."

Piano duet

Ravel's "Mother Goose Suite" will be played in another piano duet by Irv Jones and Nancy Hileman, followed by Harry Langdon singing "Glory Road."

Selections from Menotti's opera "The Telephone" will be sung by Clarence Smelser and LuAnne Bisbee.

The music convocation will be concluded with a duo-piano number, Milhad's "Scaramouche" by Jacque Geilus and Nancy Lindborg.

Summer registration runs from May 14-18

Students who are planning to attend summer school are asked to prepare for registration soon.

The Intersession will open May 21 and run through June 8. The regular session of five weeks will be June 11-July 14. The final three-week term is set for July 16-Aug. 3.

Registration for the summer sessions and the fall term will be open from May 14 through May 18, according to Alice C. Smith, registrar.

The early registration is for the convenience of students now attending school. More details will be printed in next week's Gateway.

Eligible draftees should apply for deferrment exam

Eligible draftees who have not yet filed applications to take the Selective Service System College Qualification Test are urged to do so immediately.

According to reports from Washington, there is a strong possibility that students who do not take the test may not be deferred regardless of class standing.

Students may get an application card from their draft boards. This will facilitate the assignment of students to one of the three testing dates. This must be done as soon as possible, according to John E. Woods, Placement Office director.

Practice tests will be administered by Dr. Claude Thompson May 15 at 8 a.m. in room 438. Students taking the test will be excused from classes during 8-10 a.m. on that date.

The practice test will be given free of charge to all draft eligible students.

Woods is urging that these students file for their application as soon as possible. Further information is available on the entrance to the bookstore, as well as on the bulletin board.

Optimist Club hears OU Band at Fontenelle lunch

Omaha University's Band played before the Optimist Club's luncheon last Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. at the Fontenelle Hotel.

Courthouse registration open til Friday

Students of voting age who have not yet registered or who have changed their addresses since previous city elections are urged to register as soon as possible.

The Election Commissioner's office in the Douglas County Courthouse is open for registration from 8:30 a.m. til 9 p.m. through Friday of this week.

Senior class chooses trophy case for gift

Senior class gift to the university was chosen at the class meeting Thursday morning in room 308. Members selected a trophy case for the west entrance of the Fieldhouse which will be presented to the university on Senior Class Day, May 23.

Senior announcements may be purchased in the bookroom at 10 for $1.45, according to Willis Brown, class president. Extra announcements may be secured at .14 apiece.

Senior activities take final form; Commencement exercises, June 4

Senior class activities are now taking shape. Events on the agenda for the graduating class include Senior Class Day, May 23; banquet and dance, June 1; Baccalaureate, June 3; and Commencement, June 4.

Students are asked to pay their graduation fee at the business office before May 11. The fee for an associate title is $5, for bachelor degrees, $10, and for a masters degree $15.

Receipts may be presented at the bookstore for ordering caps and gowns. Orders will not be accepted after May 11. Veterans are required to report to the business office, even though they are not paying the graduation fee.

Arrangements for use of a cap and gown for Senior Class Day must be made on or before Friday, and for Baccalaureate and Commencement on or before May 11.

Class day

Tradition requires that all seniors wear their caps and gowns to all classes throughout Senior Class Day. The formal class day program will be held at 11 a.m. on the front steps of the Administration Building. All seniors graduating June 4 or Aug. 3 are invited to participate in the academic procession. Robert Jones is chairman of the Class Day activities.

The senior class banquet and dance is set for Friday, June 1,

University offers Intersession course for elementary teachers; administrators, pupil control workshops

The University of Omaha will offer a number of workshops and special sessions during the coming summer sessions which begin with an Intersession May 21, and run through Aug. 3.

An intersession course for elementary school teachers' will open summer sessions at the University of Omaha May 21 running to June 8. The subject of the session is "Teaching of the Language Arts."

Intersession will provide an opportunity for teachers whose schools dismiss early to enroll for summer work before the regular summer term.

Two courses

Two courses will be offered during the session. The first,

Students poll tomorrow in school-wide election

Thirty-eight candidates vie for 15 positions; Vote to fill Princess, Council, publications

OU students will take to the polls tomorrow for the annual spring election. Thirty-eight students will compete for 15 positions, including that of Ma-ie Day Princess. Other posts to be filled are Student Council representatives from each class, and Board of Student Publications.

Voting will take place in the west lounge from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Nancy Jones, election chairman, is urging all students to turn out for the annual election.

Freshmen, sophomores, and juniors will vote for the candidates for the Board of Student Publications. Those in the race for the two publications posts are Harley Beber, Jim Daley, Dean Brown, Charlotte Weinberg, Leonard Lefitz, Dick Winchell, and Bonnie Wilson.

Sophomore posts

Two men and two women will be elected to the Student Council positions from the freshmen, sophomore, and junior classes. Those on the ballot for next year's sophomore representatives include Teresa Littlejohn, Diane Purdy, Jean Salladay, Doris Burnett, and Joan Ebert.

Men running for the sophomore posts are Norman Goldenberg, Bob Keim, Bob Moscrey, Roger Orr, and Jerry Ziehe. Only freshmen may vote for these candidates.

Junior list

Candidates for the junior representatives on the Council are Jeannine Fratt, Charlotte Longville, and Marilyn Sibert. Men on the list are Bob Citta, William Duffack, Jack Katz, Howard Olson, and Jim Townsend.

Those in competition for the senior Council seats are Joan Bugbee, Nancy Jones, Jean Levenson, and Jacqueline Zerbe. Men on the ballot include Bud Bridenbaugh, Lynn Hooten, George Marling, and Ben Tobias. Only juniors may cast their vote for these representatives.

All students will vote for the Attira XVII Ma-ie Day Princess are Norma Elfline, vying for the title of Princess Chi Omega; Ruth Lane, Sigma Kappa; JoAnne Olsen, Alpha Xi Delta; Gloria Schiro, Zeta Tau Alpha; and Beverly Swahn, Independent Students Association.

Social, service groups aid in drive tomorrow for cancer control

Social and service organizations will combine their efforts in the "Lights On" Cancer Campaign tomorrow night.

More than 170 students from 10 social fraternities, APO, ISA, and Delta Sigma Pi will participate in the drive which will begin at 8 p.m.

The workers will cover the city in a block-to-block campaign collecting contributions from homes where porch lights have been turned on. The lights will indicate the wish to contribute.

Insurance representative interviews business seniors

A representative from the Liberty Mutual Insurance Company was at the University yesterday to interview senior men who plan to graduate from the Business Administration Department.

The representative was chiefly interested in students who would like positions as claim adjusters and investigators.

In a similar drive last spring, OU students collected a total of $1,26.22.

Student scholarship blanks in Dean's Office

Students now attending school who are interested in applying for scholarships for the 1951-52 school year, should secure application blanks from the Dean of Students Office, room 272. Completed forms must be turned into the Dean's Office not later than June 1.

Kindergarten-Primary Education, will include organization, management, and curriculum of the kindergarten and first three grades of school. Miss Frances E. Wood, associate professor of education at the university, will teach the three credit course.

A three-credit course in methods of teaching in intermediate grades will be given by Dr. Frances Holliday, associate professor of education at Omaha U.

School administrators

A School Administrator's Workshop will also be offered at the university during the summer session June 4-9. "Role of the School Administrator in Meeting the Problems of Today," will be the subject of the course.

Guest director for the workshop will be Dr. Orin B. Graf, Ph.D., head of the department of school administration at the University of Tennessee.

Course credit

School administrators attending the workshop will receive three hours credit. An individual project concerning the course must be completed shortly before the conference ends.

The workshop will cover such problems as the tasks and subject matter of the administrator, teachers, financing, buildings, preventing drop-outs, and resource specialists.

Sports education main interests of Ma-ie Day Princess candidates

Candidates for Ma-ie Day Princess backed by different campus organizations are in activities as varied as their likes and dislikes, and their personalities.

Norma Elflin is a member of Chi Omega and is rush chairman for the group. A Junior Prom Princess last year the 5 ft. 4½ inch green-eyed brunette is majoring in Education and is also active in Feathers and Future Teachers of America. Norma came to OU after two years at Rockford College.

Backed by Sigma Kappa, Ruthie Lane, 5 ft. 5 in. blue eyed blonde is a Business Ad major who loves dancing and music. Ruthie is music and activities chairman for Sigma Kappa and also is a member of Feathers, and Deans Honor Roll.

JoAnne Olsen is a General Science major who loves athletics. A member of Alpha Xi, she has been a member of OUWI four year and is very proud of her part in starting the current bowling league. Jo stands 5 ft. 2 and has blue eyes and brown hair and "freckles by the bucket-full." The sports minded coed also plays the accordion.

Representing Zeta Tau Alpha is Gloria Schiro, a 5 ft. 4 brownette with blue eyes. Gloria, Dietetics major, is a member of the Home Ec Club and social chairman of Zeta. She also counts in her activities Tom-Tom Revues, Vocations Day Seminars and Deans Honor Roll. Dancing, swimming and tennis occupy her extra hours right now.

Athletic minded Beverly Swahn is the fifth candidate for the Princess title. The 5 ft. 8

Now, it's our move . . .

"Regents vote tuition boost." That was the headline in The Gateway a year ago this week.

It brought forth screams of anguish and dozens of questions from the student body. Most of these questions boiled down to this: "Why doesn't the Board of Regents get the additional needed money from the taxpayers?"

The answer to that question was "time." The university needed new funds immediately; the tax-increase idea was at the very least an 18-month project. But President Milo Bail realized the position of OU students. In a special Gateway interview, he announced, "I will do everything possible to secure additional funds in the future from the city and not from the students."

Two weeks from today Omaha voters will judge the results of that promise. For the promise has been kept.

Omaha University requested permission from the State Legislature to seek an increase in the tax levy ceiling. Early in the present session that permission was granted. Omaha University has now requested the people of Omaha to permit the tax increase. A decision will come May 15.

The president and the Board of Regents have kept faith with the students. The next move is up to us. Students, faculty members, alumni and friends of the university must sell the university personally. During the next two weeks, individual contact with voters is a must. T.N.T.

The other day an OU observer remarked that "college isn't what it used to be." Students nowadays, he said, are more mature and cold about the whole business. In short, we have lost the "college sentiment."

This just isn't true. We may not gather on the front steps by moonlight to sing the "Wif-fenpoof Song," or lay roses under the Founders' Plaque, but there's feeling deep down just the same.

It's just a different kind of sentiment. We're more practical, but we still have a heart. The 1951 sentiment is something like this:

Imagine the Old Grad and his Girl returning for a moonlight stroll on OU's campus. The stars twinkle and a warm breeze is blowing.

"Look," the Old Grad says huskily. "Look how the moon shines on the roof of the Field-house, which boasts an indoor track and portable basketball floor."

"A permanent construction advantage to West Omaha," the Girl breathes.

They walk slowly over the lawn. The Old Grad turns his face to hide his tears.

"Memories," he whispers. "Many's the time I've lolled in this grass, carefully sodded by a competent grounds staff, and" his voice breaks.

"And," the Girl continues, sobbing, "and liberally fertilized."

They stop and gaze at the building. The Old Grad's voice is faint.

"The old school," he murmurs, "well remembered for its modern air conditioning and up-to-date facilities. Ah, the old school."

They turn sadly, climb into their Cadillac and depart.

Television, an eminent professor states, is making the nation illiterate. For proof, he points to the "higher institution" (colleges) which have to teach the students to read.

I don't think it's that bad. Already a four-year-old I know can read short sentences such as "What'll You Have?" and "Don't Be Half-Safe."

From the Gospel: "Girls have ten chances to become a queen; boys have only four." And mighty slim chances at that.

From a drugstore ad: "All through their lives something is happening to women to increase their need for Vitamin B . . . Try Blank Tablets." Faults or not, we're loyal.

No sweet tooth Frat gets axe

(By Associated Collegiate Press) The Crown and Lance Fraternity at Hofstra College, N. Y., has been suspended from pledging privileges for "the spring."

Trouble began when two Crown and Lance pledges were dropped off in Connecticut after having their heads and shoulders annointed with molasses, shredded wheat, ketchup and flour. It was all part of fraternity's Hell Night festivities.

Next day the Associated Press came out with a story saying the youths were "clad completely in a form-fitting suit of tar and feathers." The Hofstra dean of students promptly slapped the pledging ban on the fraternity.

The school paper had this to say: "This whole thing is being inflated to monumental proportions. No one was hurt, and what is more important, no one was in danger of being hurt. . .

Indians invade Morningside attempt to improve record

Omaha U's baseball squad take to the road today for an encounter against Morningside at Sioux City. The Indians, striving to gain recognition for the NCAA playoffs, will be cut to make amends for their mediocre showing to date.

In recent local action, Creighton visited the Morningside campus and salvaged an 8-5 victory so the Red and Black should be instilled to even greater heights in today's game.

Last season the Maroons met defeat twice at the hands of the OU nine, 15-6 and 16-7.

Coach Virg Yelkin will have his choice of throwing Larry Micheels, who hasn't seen action since the Arkansas trip, or Lynn Hooten, the oft-named starter in the Nebraska Wesleyan games. Both boys are right handers. There is also a chance that Yelkin might call upon southpaw Bill Duffack to twirl.

The Omaha U starting lineup will be probably the same as in past games with the exception that Ernie Lee may get the nod at the third sack. Don Claussen, "Bugs" Redden, and Don Mase-man should round out the inner defense with either "Bubby" Harrison or Jim Danze behind the plate.

OUWI hold play day for 70 high schoolers

The University of Omaha played hostess to 70 girls from five Omaha high schools last Saturday. OUWI held its annual High School Play Day for the high school girls from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Fifteen University women were in charge of all arrangements for the Play Day. Miss Vera Duerschner, OUWI adviser, sponsored the activities.

Wichita ruins home baseball debut with 4-2 victory in ten

Wichita University spoiled Omaha U's home baseball debut Thursday night, by beating the Indians, 4-2, in Muny Stadium.

Big Bob Offerjost had shut out Wichita on two hits, going into the ninth inning. But in the ninth, with one out, the visitors combined a double, two singles, a walk and a ground out for two runs and a tie.

In the Omaha half of the ninth, singles by Offerjost and Bill Duffack and a walk to Bugs Redden loaded the bases. Johnny Potts then laced a long drive to left-center field which looked like the winning hit. Centerfielder Bill Tibbets, however, made a running, diving catch of the liner to kill Omaha's rally.

Wichita ended it in the tenth. Three singles and two Omaha errors gave the visitors a pair of runs. Offerjost then bore down to strike out the last three batters.

The Wichita catcher made what could have been a Mickey Owen play in the Omaha tenth. With two down, he missed the third strike pitched to Jim Danze. Danze, however, died on first when Don Mase-man missed the third strike.

Bill Duffack was the big gun for Omaha, getting three singles in five times at bat.

Indian golfers split two home matches

Coach John Campbell's golf team will match strokes with Nebraska Wesleyan tomorrow. Gordon Severa and Bob Murray tied the Buffs double team of Bob Rose and Joe Feehan, 1½-1½.

Merle Backlund dumped Bob Lindberg of Omaha, 3-0, Rose hit Murray, 2-1, and Feehan spilled Severa, 2-1. Backlund and Detweiler beat the Lindberg-Lof combination, 2½-½.

Friday, Lof lost to Dennis Smith of Wichita, while Lindberg was dumping Joe Minjores, 3-0. Lof and Lindberg spilled Smith-Minjores, 3-0.

Murray and Maurice Bowen tied, 1½-1½, Dick Adkisson beat Severa, 2-1, but Murray and Severa beat the Wichita duo, 2-1.

Lindberg was medalist against Wichita with a 74. Thursday's match was played at the Country Club, Friday's at Happy Hollow.

The General Planning Committee included Doris Harris, Joyce Erdkamp, Sharon Eselin, Ruth Longville and Betty Swenson.

The girls participated in volleyball, cageball, pingpong and archery during two play periods in the morning. The Student Center was the scene of the luncheon. After the meal, an original skit, "The Phys Ed Song", was presented.

After the luncheon, the girls played softball and rode bicycles in Elmwood Park.

Other committees included activities with Helen Tiaht, chairman. Miss Longville, Beverly Swahn and Marilyn Rogers aided her on the committee.

Miss Harris was in charge of publicity. Helping her were Elaine Jones, Donna Smith, Jo Thorson and Marilyn Raupe.

Miss Erdkamp was head of the luncheon and skit committee. Beverly Copeland, Maridell Myers, Gayle Fried and Betty Swenson were her assistants.

Indian tennisists whip Drake, meet Tarkio

Today and tomorrow are busy days for the Omaha U tennis squad. This afternoon the team takes on Tarkio College at the Missouri school.

Tomorrow Coach George Pritchard and this squad will hustle back home for a match with Maryville State Teachers. The team also played Maryville Saturday, but results were not available for this issue.

Gorman is hired as sports head coach at Crawford school

'Mural softball begins soon; Gorr moves golf, tennis deadlines ahead

Softball managers are asked to keep in contact with Ernie Gorr, 'mural director, regarding the softball schedule. As soon as the weather permits, league play will begin. If the inclement weather continues, the games may be played by the elimination method.

Dates for the conclusion of first round play in the tennis and golf tournament have been moved to May 4. Bad weather forced the revision.

'Mural track meet has been tentatively set for May 2-3. Events will begin at 8:30 p. m.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 19...THE WEASEL

No wonder he blew his stack! All this double talk about quick cigarette tests was a flagrant infringement on his patent rights! They couldn't fool this character with "one-puff"—"one-whiff" experiments. Millions of smokers have reached the same conclusion—there's just one real way to prove the flavor and mildness of a cigarette.

It's the sensible test—the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test—which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke...on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis. No snap judgments needed! After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days, we believe you'll know why...

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!

Merlyn Fratt wins title of girls' choice, 'Joe College'

New 'Joe' receives royal dunce cap from Mrs. Young at Feathers' dance

"Joe College IX" was crowned with a very royal dunce cap Friday night at the Feathers' annual dance. Merlyn Fratt was elected by OU coeds as their choice for the typical college man.

The event was held in Omaha University's auditorium from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. Mrs. Mary Padou Young dressed in her cap and gown, Crowned Fratt, a Theta Chi, with the dunce cap. The new "Joe College" was presented with a bill fold by the president of Phi Sigma Chi, Bev Swahn.

Approximately 200 students attended the dance. Cokes and Seven-Up were served for refreshments. The five other candidates who competed for the title were Fred Pisasale, Independents; Jack Katz, Phi Epsilon Pi; Dale Sass, Sigma Lambda Beta; Don Saroorian; Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Joe Arenas, Theta Phi Delta.

All university students were invited to the annual event. They were admitted by activity cards. Jane Hoff, was chairman of the over-all arrangements. Irv Jones and his combo furnished the music for the students. The auditorium was decorated in red and black streamers. Small banners were on each of the tables. The red banners read "Joe College" and the black ones read "OU".

Only the women could vote for the "Joe College IX". Dress was strictly informal. Miss Hoff's committee consisted of Evelyn Bowerman, decorations; Romona McCurrey, foods; Miss Swahn, details; Joanne Petersen, invitations; Helen Patane, presentation, and June Williams, publicity.

Chi O's to entertain with pot luck supper

The Chi Omega actives will entertain last semester's pledge class with a pot luck supper tomorrow evening at 6:30 p. m. at the home of Pat Patrick. The older actives will furnish all the food for both themselves and the ex-pledges.

The party will climax the scholarship race held during the first semester this year between the pledge class and the active group.

Pre-Med's will give dinner Tuesday eve

The University of Omaha's Pre-Medical Club will present a dinner next Tuesday in the Faculty Clubroom.

Several Omaha physicians and nurses will be guests of the club. The club will honor those doctors, dentists, and medical technologists who have taken part or all of their pre-training courses at the university and are now practicing in the Omaha area.

Soc Club will hold discussion Thursday

The OU Sociology Club will hold its second panel discussion Thursday at 1 p. m. in room 209. Mrs. Catherine Thomas, instructor in the sociology department, will lead the discussion on the problems of courtship.

Players will conduct election for officers

Election of new officers will be conducted by the University Players tomorrow afternoon at 4 p. m.

Plans for a party will be announced at that time. Also on the schedule is a business report to be given on the play. The Players will meet in room 386. The organization met Friday afternoon to nominate officers.

Gary Penisten will play for fraternity

Another OU "queen" will be crowned Saturday evening when the Gamma Eta chapter of Delta Sigma Pi reveals its third "Rose of Delta Sig."

The "Rose" will be announced at the group's annual semi-formal dance in the Black Mirror Room of the Fontenelle Hotel. A dinner at 7 p. m. will precede the dance which begins at 9 p. m. and lasts until midnight. Gary Penisten and his orchestra will play for the Delta Sig's and their dates.

Three candidates competed for the title. They were Shirley Hawkins, Gamma Sigma Omicron; Joan Clawson, Chi Omega, and Barbara Ehlers, Zeta Tau Alpha.

The "Rose" has already been elected by the fraternity. The winner's picture has been sent into the national office to compete in the national "Rose of Delta Sig" contest.

The OU chapter's "Rose" will be presented with a gift and a bouquet of roses by last year's winner, June Williams. Bill Cronstrom will announce the titleholder for this year.

The dinner table and ballroom decorations will follow the theme of roses.

Ray Barr and Jerry Leffler, social chairmen, are in charge

In Waterville, Maine, there is always a friendly gathering of Colby College students at the Colby Spa. And, as in college campus haunts everywhere, ice-cold Coca-Cola helps make these get-togethers something to remember. As a refreshing pause from the study grind, or when the gang gathers around—coke belongs.

Ask for it either way... both trade-marks mean the same thing.
